Please join us for our VLLC 2016 Latino Get-Out-The-Vote Reception, October 21

Dear Latino community activists and friends:

In the final weeks of this election year, the Virginia Latino Leaders Council (VLLC) will conduct a vigorous Latino GOTV effort to ensure that Virginia's Latino community comes out to vote. We believe that the presidential election may be closer than polls indicate, and some of the down-ballot candidates who are friendly to a Latino agenda could win in November, if the majority of the 291,000 Latino eligible voters actually vote.

Please join us:

WHEN: Friday, October 21, from 6:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

WHAT: VLLC Latino GOTV Reception

WHERE: Home of Dr. Sergio Rimola, 1082 Methven Court, Herndon, VA 20170

WHY: We invite you to join Latino activists from throughout Virginia to continue our efforts to promote a strong Latino GOTV and victory on November 8.

Please RSVP: valatinoleaderscouncil@gmail.com

We intend for our Latino GOTV efforts to include media, mailers and knocking on Latino doors to ensure that every potential voter is reached and encouraged to vote. We invite you to come to our October 21 reception, socialize with friends and fellow activists, and contribute what you can to promote this important effort!

Many thanks and look forward to seeing you,

J. Walter Tejada
President
